

MAJOR WORK UNDERTAKEN BY PKII WHICH BEST ILLUSTRATES QUALIFICATIONS

Project Name: MICT BREAKWATER REHABILITATION PROJECT		Country: Philippines
Project Location with Country: Manila		Professional Staff Provided: 2
Name of Client: International Container Terminal Services, Inc.		No. of Staff: 3
Address: 2F Engineering Maintenance Bldg., MICT South Access Road, North Harbor, Manila		No. of Person-Months:
Start Date: (Month/Year) 1999	Completion Date (Month/Year) 2000	Approx. Value of Service: ₱ 3,993,000
Name of Associated Firm(s), if any: None		No. of Months of Professional Staff Provided by Associated Firm(s):
Name of Key Staff Involved and Position : Miguel Palomo - Team Leader George Pavon - Resident Engineer
Detailed Narrative Description of Project: The project involved the restoration of the existing north and west breakwaters of the Manila International Container Terminal, with a total length of about 2 kilometers.
Detailed Description of Actual Services Provided: The services provided included supply of labor, materials, equipment, consumables & supervision necessary for survey, and detailed engineering design needed for the repair of breakwater of the Manila International Container Terminal.		